Highlighting the Athletic Achievements of Loma Prieta & CTE Students

Track & Field

The Cheetah runners, jumpers and throwers enjoyed an exciting WVAL final league meet last week at Branham High School. The students were all competing for a chance to qualify and participate in the county-wide meet on May 24, and CTE will be sending nine athletes to the county event! The league final result highlights are included below and results from the county meet will be featured in the next edition.

CTE/Loma County Meet Qualifiers:

- Alex Denman, a Loma 5th-grader, took first place in the boys 6th-grade with a leap of 29'1".
- The 8th-grade girls 4x400 relay team, with Carly Hoffner, Annie Hoffner, Kylie Horn and Bella DeMeo, took second place with a time of 4:38.41.
- Kylie also qualified in the 8th-grade girls 100m, finishing in third place with 13.68, and she won the girls triple jump, leaping 32'5".
